Reporting

Last Modified on 06/11/2018 12:12 pm EET

Reporting pages are used to see reports of Carillon client status, Carillon configuration and actions done in Carillon.

- Computers

  See report of all local groups, group members and local users on Carillon clients

- Group rules

  See Carillon management rules created for local group management

- User rules

  See Carillon management rules created for local user account management

- Activation codes

  See report of created activation codes for Carillon temporary user accounts

- Other

  Other reports created from information in Carillon database. This can contain also customer specific reports.