

Web site administration

Last Modified on 17/04/2020 2:47 pm EEST

Centro Carillon web site can be customized by changing web site settings, access control and portal appearance. Access control and most of the web site settings are specified in web.config file and appearance changes are done to multiple XML files and web.config file.